PIMLICO ESTABLISHES NEW RECORD FOR STAKE EVENTS

Balley's Alley and Lucky Hour Clinch Claims to Championship Honors of Their Respective Divisions During Maryland's Fall Meetings—Attendance Records Broken.

HOROUGHBRED competition in the immediate vicinity of Washington during the past year was more highly patronized than ever before. The four one-mile tracks of Maryland, namely, Havre de Grace, Laurel, Pimlico and Bowie, not to mention the small strips such as Timonium, Upper Marlboro and Hagerstown, drew in far greater numbers from the National Capital than has heretofore been their wont.

Altogether Maryland afforded Havre de Grace, Laurel, Pimlico and Bowie, not to mention the small

And it was not until the Lexington stable's Lucky Hour invaded the Old Line State that the son of Ferole or Hourless—Lucky Catch was able to demonstrate conclusively that he was the best three-year-old that had been through the campaign.

Exterminator's performance in the Laurel stakes when he gave away weight to such acknowledged stars as the imported Paragon II, which was making its first public appearance in this country; Tryster, Carewas making its first public appearance in this country: Tryster, Careful, Playfellow and others, and handfly defeated them over a mile route, etamped him as being the greatest thoroughbred of the year which had passed the three-year age limit.

HISTORY MADE. Turf history was made with the score: running of the Pimilico Futurity.

The $50,000 stake had been reached when the Kentucky Jockey Club put on a special last spring, which brought together Rockminister. Lucky Hour, Bunting and other high-class handicap horses. True it is that the special match between the great Man q' War and Sir Barton was for a $15,000 purse, but this was never recognized as a stake event.
